4. [REDACTED] made an excellent introductory talk. He drew on his operational background in [REDACTED] affairs to illustrate how records can make the difference between effective and ineffective operations. In addition [REDACTED] drew a succinct picture of the means by which our CS Records system is controlled, and gave a precis of the new reorganization which is now in process. He concluded with a few of the changes and benefits which he anticipates over the next few years.

Chief Instructor's Comments

25X1A

7. This was a very satisfactory class, despite its relatively small size. [REDACTED] initial talk sparked a number of discussions, particularly lively because of the high level of student experience.

25X1A

Several students, notably [REDACTED] of DO and [REDACTED] of CI, 25X1A made worthwhile contributions from their own experience.
